

COVID-19 Emergency surcharge – Surcharge on Express & Economy shipment

As a supplier of specialized transport and logistics services, Seabourne Logistics serves many customers in various countries every day. The efficiency and flexibility of our network and infrastructure is therefore of the utmost importance. Seabourne Logistics plays a vital role in keeping the necessary goods moving and deliveries in the COVID-19 crisis. We are closely following events related to the global coronavirus pandemic and will continue to operate to support the needs of our customers. We will keep you informed of any restrictions per region via our website: Seabourne News & Media

In the face of the challenges posed by the current global COVID-19 situation, Seabourne Logistics is working to maintain a reliable delivery service for you and your customers. Our highest priority is to help ensure the health and safety of our employees, customers, and suppliers while meeting our service commitments.

In order to ensure operational continuity and to keep connecting the world with a high-quality service, effective 13th April 2020 we will temporarily and until further notice levy an 'Emergency Surcharge' to all Express and Economy shipments. This Emergency Surcharge will allow us to cover part of the operating cost increases and the necessary air network adjustments during the time of this emergency situation.

Covid-19 Emergency surcharge*

- Express shipments € 0,85 per kilogram
- Economy shipments € 0,85 per shipment

*Not applicable to shipments shipped under pallet account or sea and air shipments.

Seabourne Logistics values your business and is looking forward to continue to serve you through these challenging times. We would like to be of assistance. Should you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact one of our account managers.
